Chapter 1: My backround

Hi! I'm Scorge.

When I was little my class mates at Kipt academy called me names and pushed me around. The worst part was my teacher called ~~me~~ me pipsqaek, and my mom says I need to stand up for myself, but I just don't know how to. ~~the~~

"You know, you should try flying lessons, Swittie."

Mom says. "I could help with your ansyitty, and stress." She says in a calm ashering voice.

It makes me feel better about things. "I'm not sure..." I say in a high voice. "Hmmm..." My mother says. "OK?" I say in a very shakely voice. "are you asking me if its ok?"

"because if thats what your doing... then... yes!!! Its tottally OK!!! OK!!! yes!" "I'm so happy!"

I'll assign you fighting lessons to.
"Wait!" "what?" "NO." "Not flying lessons!"

The Mentor

Their leader, long tooth, assigned Scorage a Mentor to learn new things. She was a pink ice breathing dragon - her name is PINKSTAR. The other dragon that had gotten an assigned mentor Trace her Nostey brother left with his mentor Lion Jaw. He turned round and spit at her before he left. She turned round to PINKSTAR, and PINKSTAR said let's go. They left and turned 2 rights and entered a water cave that connected to the outside. They took 2 more rights and came into a passage way. When it stopped, they entered a waterlogged hollow, filled with sunlight. What she saw across was awful. Trace and his mentor were standing opposite her and PINKSTAR. The 2 mentors faced them and said we want to see your skills.

STILL

Her brother threw himself at her and she dodged. Lion Jaw's power was to take water away. The water was leaving, and she stretched her wings. She let out a ~~long~~ breath. Something blue came out of her mouth. The hollow felt frozen. ~~Her~~ Her mentor let out a gasp. So did Trace and Lion Jaw. Ice came out of the hollow's floor. Long tooth entered the hollow and she shrieked. "Scorge get down! Come." She lead her out of every thing. She lead her towards her den. Scorge's mother flew towards her. Her and her mother ~~followed~~ followed Long tooth towards her ~~den~~ den. They entered. She was shocked by the inside. Evil dragon artifacts lined the hollow's walls. She sat down and motioned for them to do the same.

Ice powers

"What the..." Trace stared.
"Wow." said Pink star, Openmouthed, She stared. "You just got your ice powers." Said long tooth.
"I'm so sorry!" said Scorage. She didn't mean to Scare any one. Now there were tears starting in her eyes. She didn't know what to say. She started to fly away to her home. When she got to her home, she asked her mom where trace went.
he wasn't anywhere, then she realised...
"boo!!!" trace had just jumped out
at a corner. It scared me to death (not literally). "Mom, I didn't like fighting, or, flying lessons." I say.
my mom looks at me with sad
but sorry looking eyes. all she said back to me was, "OK." I look very surprised. "Do you want to try anything else, since you have your ice powers
now?" my mom asked. "Maybe."
I say, "OK." "you know... I do want to learn how to use my powers." "Great!" said my mom.

Chapter 5

The power Lesson

Scorage found her <sup>new</sup> mentor Powerscale. Powerscale was a very surly dragon, she was a purple dragon. She was also an ice breathing dragon. She was ~~was~~ called a moon dragon. They can live on the moon. Powerscale did not want to live on the moon, so she lived under the sea. Scorage thought that she thought she would be in the center of everything, because she was not like anyone else.

Powerscale flicked her wing and Scorage followed her into a water hollow and said "vorage vart no.!!". Scorage took a long breath and let it out it felt like her head was on fire, but fire was not leaving her mouth, it was ice.

Chapter 6

Ice

It was magical, a magical feeling coming out of her mouth. The hollow of water was now the hollow of Ice. Powerscale ordered her to stop, so she did. She followed Powerscale out and into another cave. This one had a long narrow strip of stone no light shown in the hollow. It ~~was~~ opened up and a black shadow was at the end. The shadow said "Bonjour". The shadow said "Longtooth" Pinkscale said "she's a..." She glanced at Scourge, "I think you should wait outside..." No Powerscale. Longtooth said. Longtooth took a long breath and said "You are rare."

"You are a rafe." kept repeating in her head. She went through the entrance to ~~the~~ her family den and found her mom and Trace sitting there. Well? Trace said "She sat down in front of her mom."

"He needs to leave" scorge said.

"No" her mom said. How did it go?

Trace wondered aloud. Scorge took a breath and tried to remain calm but that did not work. "HOW

DARE YOU KEEP THAT TO YOURSELF!"

Her mom stared hard at her.

"What was I keeping from you she asked. That I'm a rafe."

Scorge cried. "Oh honey" her mom started but scorge cut her off.

Look up...? Her mom glanced up.

Two evil looking eyes were staring down at them. Trace cried the twins.

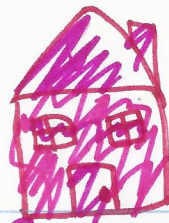

chapters

The twins deasaster

The twins flew down into the cave and said "sadge come!" They lead her into a gouge into the wall and murrer fed fire. Two huge flames appeared. The stone was widing super bad. The twins moves away but before they did sadge did not notice them say "bad luck". She took in a breath and murrer'd "Ice, Ice, Ice" The fire just watted even more till she said "Goodbye fire you are little more than charcol". She rounded back and yelled "Why?" but the twins were not there.

~~Long tooth~~

Scorage's house

"Stop it!" screamed Scorage. The twins had come back and were setting their house on fire again. Scorage couldn't keep up. The fire was getting bigger and bigger. Her house fell down hard onto the dirt sea ground. Every one there, with open mouths, stared at the pile of stone and rock. Long tooth came rushing in the room and lead the twins out. They got arrested and Scorage's house was destroyed because of them. Her mom and brother stayed in a nearby abandoned house next to theirs, but... scorage would rather sleep in the pile of house that had fell. Weeks later a new house had been made for her family, but it wasn't the same at all. It was just... different.

The End

With scorage's new house built, nothing was the same after that. She stayed in her room for two weeks before she came out. Every day, she wondered when things would go back to normal.

But they never did. Trace was acting super calm and nice to her this week. She ~~suspected~~ suspected that he knew this was hard for her, and every one..... But, she knew that every thing would be OK in. ~~the~~

The End

The

End!

Trace's backstory.

I am Trace. Scourge's brother. I don't refer to me as a younger brother. I love training. I hated Kipt Academy. I wanted to train. I overheard Scorge telling mom she wanted wanted to train! Mom came out and I cried "I will insert the ~~the~~ strips that we want to train". I inserted them and waited. Then Longtooth called for us to come together. I was so unhappy. Sammy told me he was going to get a mentor today. He said he would get Longtooth herself! I saw him sit in the back and ~~once~~ once we all sat he stepped forth. Longtooth looked down. "Sammy?" she asked. "No, I want Scorge and Trace". I was so excited!

Mom's BackStory

13

I am a momma dragon.
I always wanted a baby dragon.
Strong and blue like the sky and moon. I wanted 2-4. When I had a baby dragon I was so excited. It was a she dragon. I wanted another one then when she was 4 I had another baby dragon. It was time to name them. I named the first one Scorage and named the new one Trace. I named the girl Scorage because that means strong. I learned later that it also means evil, but I could not change that.

Longtooth's back story

I am Longtooth. I am leader.
I was once young. I was young and was not smart like I am now. I wanted to be leader. I sometimes feel like it was the wrong decision. I am in control about everything.
When the last leader died we were all so scared. None of us had been alive when she became leader. We decided we wanted 2 candidates. I agreed. So did Powerscale.
I thought she would win. She was smart. I was not. We were a tie until Pinkstar stepped up. ~~She~~ "The Final vote is here she said. She placed the stone in front of me! I became Longtooth the leader, not Longtooth
the unsmart dragon."
